THAT this House urges the Yukon Government to abide by the Speaker's letter of April 28, 2010, that expressed concern about Members' use of Tributes as an opportunity to honour themselves instead of honouring the efforts and achievements of others, something that did not occur on Thursday, September 30, 2010 and twice again on October 4, 2010, by bringing forward its political messaging in the form of a Ministerial Statement which would allow Opposition Members to challenge any future partisan statements.

2. Mr. Cardiff (Motion #1184)

THAT this House urges the Yukon Government to immediately foster a public dialogue and seek advice in developing a fair, coherent and principled approach for compensating claimholders when public lands are withdrawn from mineral staking for wilderness areas, recreation, residential or other uses important to Yukoners.
